Dear Rhetta, when I saw a letter in the mail today with the return address of 4815 13th St, my heart sank, somehow I knew. My heart goes out to you, Michael, Brant, Chas -- the entire family. Who I am today is due in large part (LARGE PART) to the time I spent in the loving care of Mama Jo at her daycare. She taught us to share, to love, to forgive, to accept. You all are in my prayers & the prayers of the entire Paynter family. God bless y'all.

“ ‘Mama Jo’ took my son in and gave him so much love. We felt like family. On Stacy’s first day at Joan’s, he was put in a separate room from the other children because he wouldn’t take his nap. When nap time was over she went to check on Stacy. Upon entering his room, Joan found it in the biggest mess she had ever seen. He had climbed out of his bed and proceeded to ‘clean’ the closet out-spread all over the room! When I picked Stacy up that afternoon, she told me the story. I burst out crying and she quickly let me know that he was a keeper and she loved him! That started a wonderful adventure with the entire Nash family. Mama Jo was dearly loved and will never be forgotten. Our prayers and love to her wonderful family. Verdonna Durham
