

JoAnn Barnes

November 10, 1949 - November 28, 2017

Services for JoAnn Barnes, 68, of Lubbock will be Friday, December 1, 2017 at noon in the Levelland Cemetery Chapel (Southwest corner of the cemetery). Please celebrate the life of JoAnn by visiting www.sandersfuneralhome.com.

JoAnn went to be with her Lord and Savior on November 28, 2017.

JoAnn was born November 10, 1949 in Levelland, TX to Clyde and Thelma Harrington. She graduated from Levelland High School and attended South Plains College. She then attended Airline School and was employed by several federal government agencies: C.I.A., Railroad Administration, Housing Urban Development and the A.T.F. She retired in April, 2005.

JoAnn married Charles W. Barnes on April 17, 1971. She was a member of Trinity Church-Lubbock, Texas. She was a devoted christian, wife, and mother. She enjoyed music, reading, spending time outdoors and traveling.

Loved ones include husband, Charles Barnes; son, David Barnes and wife, Jennifer; son, Jonathan Barnes and wife, Chandra; grandsons; Matthew, Joshua and Jacob Barnes; sisters, Sandra Smith and husband, Marvin; and Mary Cooper.

JoAnn truly loved life, her family and lived "righteously." She was the true example of how to live by the word of God. She was the center of her family and will be truly missed. God blessed this "Beautiful Righteous Lady!"

“ Charlie, Sandra and Mary,
I am so sorry for your loss. My fondest memories of JoAnn and her family were coming to your house for the week end when we were growing up. I love you all and am praying for you during this hard time. May God's arms be around you during this time of loss. I love you all. God Bless you.

She was a kind and loving woman. Loved her family and friends dearly. My heart breaks for my Father and Brothers. She has gone to be by the Lord and we will all be together again.
