“ Joe was a dear friend, we have a lot of memories of hunting and the many good times at the ranch riding motorcycles and working. He always pulled the elder card when it came to claiming the big bed at the ranch. I enjoyed the time we had at his shop. I guess the funniest thing he did to me was when we went pheasant hunting and I couldn't hit anything I was probably the worst marksman around, anyway the next time they went and I couldn't go they brought a pheasant to my house and tied it to a tree and said I think you cant get this one. Bobby you were a part of the joke. He was always their when anyone needed help with any thing. He was a giver of friendship. I enjoyed working for him at the race track when he was pit steward. Thanks for your friendship. I pray for comfort for the Putman family. RIP

Your friend, Terry and Judy Trim
