

John Heagy

May 10, 1925 - April 5, 2012

John C. Heagy, a good and faithful servant was welcomed into heaven by His Savior Jesus Christ on April 5, 2012. A celebration of his life will be held at First Baptist Church, Lubbock on Monday, April 9th at 2:00 p.m. The services will be officiated by Bobby Dagnel, John Ballard, and Jerry Huggins. Burial will follow at Resthaven Memorial Park. Visitation will be Sunday from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at the Sanders Funeral Home.

John was born May 10, 1925 in Imperial, TX. He resided in Odessa, Midland, and Lubbock. He attended Tarleton State and graduated from Texas Tech. He served in the Navy during World War II. He owned Spudnutt businesses in Midland and Odessa and worked for FHA/HUD for 35 years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Imperial and Odessa and was a deacon in the First Baptist Church in Lubbock and Midland.

He married Juanita Willoughby his high school sweet heart in 1948; she preceded him in death in 1987. In 1989, John married Doris Gragson. They had 23 glorious years together serving faithfully at the First Baptist Church. They also enjoyed traveling, playing games, and spending time with their family and friends. John was an avid reader and shared his library with all of his friends.

John is survived by his wife Doris; two sons, Ken Heagy and his wife Maggie of Houston, and son, John David Heagy of Lubbock. Four stepchildren: Dixie and Ron Daniel, Danny and Mitzi Gragson, Tim and Sarah Gragson, and Tonda and Marc Gilmour. He enjoyed ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Three special cousins: Edna and Bill Goodwin of Cedar Hill, Lee and Jan Hershberger of Midland and Sherrin Evans of Midland. John had many friends and business associates.

Memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church of Lubbock or the South Plains Food Bank.
