Cecil was like a grandpa, dad and best friend all rolled up in one. I still remember him bringing us our own marble playing board that he built for us and the hours we spent playing with he , Nell and the girls. The world is a little darker with out his smile and laughter and my family and I will miss Mr. T and never forget he and Nell.

“ I lived next door to Cecil for the last 18 years. It was like living next door to my daddy and my three children felt like he was their grandpa! I loved visiting with him, fixing info dinner with him, but most of all I loved playing marbles with him! He liked nothing better than beating me! I loved him and will miss him dearly! Love you Cecil!
