

Jordan Scott McFerrin

October 28, 1980 - February 21, 2016

Memorial services for Jordan Scott McFerrin, 35, of Lubbock will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, February 26, 2016 at Second Baptist Church.

Jordan was born on October 28th 1980 to Jim and Risa McFerrin. He went to be with our Lord on February 21st, 2016.

If you didn't know Jordan McFerrin, his family and friends would like to extend their condolences to you. Jordan was a phenomenal man who had quick witted humor and charm that would draw anyone and everyone to him. He was the life of the party and filled any room with his laughter. Jordan had no fears and lived life to the fullest, pushing the envelope at every turn and taking his friends and family on the ride with him. He never knew a stranger and was the most loyal man you could ever have known. His smile could melt your heart in an instant and his voice was as smooth as butter. Everyone around him looked up to him for advice, a joke or maybe just because he was 6'8". You could always count on him to make life a little sweeter and if you had the chance to know him you are part of the lucky few!

Jordan leaves behind his grandfather, Bill Cope of Lubbock, sister Amy Garcia and husband, Adrian of San Angelo, brother Adam McFerrin and wife Courtney of Lubbock, his aunt Susan James of Lubbock, nieces and nephews Kristin Garcia, Grant McFerrin, Matthew Garcia, Levi Garcia, Lillian McFerrin, Aubrey McFerrin, and Henry McFerrin; as well as a close friend Mindy Barnett and son Devin Shoobridge and countless other friends.

Jordan is now with his mother Risa McFerrin and father Jim McFerrin and grandmother Theda Cope.

“ Shortly after moving closer to Levelland from our farm in Pettit, I became very fast friends with Risa and the whole McFerrin Family. Just when I was feeling like I had such an extra special relationship with Jordan, it is no surprise to realize that Jordan had a very special relationship with everyone in his life. I was especially blessed over all these years to get many, many of his awesome hugs and share an "I love you"! For nearly 2 years now, I have passed his business location almost daily, thought of him every time and talked with him several times. I always knew that if I needed help, he would be to my rescue. Not too long ago as I turned that corner and saw him there talking with a co-worker, I resisted the idea of stopping and running to him for that special hug...wish I had stopped.....I won't resist the next time I see you, Jordan. I learned the lesson that I may not get that chance again until Heaven. My love to you, Amy and Adam. Always your friend, Terri

“ Our family has been heartbroken since our son Micah got the call early Sunday morning. Jordan and Micah have been friends since the day the McFerrins moved to Levelland. I remember the first time I met Jordan. It was on a Wednesday night in children's choir. Micah ran up to me and said "Mom you have got to meet this guy! He's a giant!"

(I must say Jordan was a "gentle giant.")

From that first meeting these two "little boys" became friends. That friendship lasted until this past Sunday.

Jordan definitely lived life to the fullest but no matter what was going on he always had time to give a huge hug! What rejoicing there must be in heaven! I'm sure his mom and dad met him at heavens gate to welcome him.

Thank you Jordan for being such a great friend to our son!

“ Jackie and I were sharing church memories of Jordan when he was a kid. He was the life of the party even then. You had to keep an eye on him but he always made us smile in the end. We were remembering the amazing compassion he had for one of our severely handicapped little girls. Not many 10-11 year old "little" boys would have pushed around a wheelchair instead of playing with friends. I'm sure Lauren was one of the first to welcome him into heaven!

“ Prayers to everyone that has been affected by this tragedy! Jordan was one of a kind, that made everyone smile with whoever he came in contact with! Not ever sure what he was going to say or do, but kept everyone on their toes. Goodness knows you will be missed, but Heaven is experiencing something right now! Rest Easy big guy!

“ I am sorry for your loss Adam and Amy, watched Jordon grow as a boy into a man. He was an awesome person always making you feel as he really loved you and we loved him. Now he sitting at the right hand of Christ and singing with the Angel's. I just know those that went before him meet him at the gates! Will be praying for all of you.

“ The Lord never truly reveals his plans for us. It was written in the big book and Jordan's job on earth was done. They always leave way too early for those of us left behind. Jordan was a true gentleman as well as a gentle giant. I will always be grateful to have known him. For now it is farewell but we will meet again one day. May you dine on the right side of the Lord my friend. Steve Roberson

“ I met Jordan through a few Meadow guys - Dusty and Brandt - while in high school. I have a lot of good memories through college years with Jordan. Many stories are too humorous and too long to post here. He was always positive and at many times a ringleader in some fun times. I enjoyed seeing him grow in the car business as he got older. Ive been in the business for a while and it's not easy making a good name for yourself and establishing yourself as someone others can trust. I believe Jordan did that. Condolences to his family and close friends.

“ God definitely has hand picked a good man! I only knew him at Outlaws and Legends. He always came up to us and spoke. Always called us by name. Talked to us like it had only been a few days since he had last seen us instead of a year! He will be greatly missed. I feel truly blessed to have known him! I loved his smile!
