

Joreta June Hood

June 17, 1939 - September 14, 2025

Joreta June Hood was born on June 17, 1939, in Tahoka, Texas, to Gilbert and Laverne Newton. Raised in Lubbock, Joreta lived a life rich in love, laughter, and mischief. She was a devoted family member and fierce friend, leaving a lasting impression on all who knew her.

A proud graduate of the Monterey High School class of 1957, Joreta went on to business college and worked as a medical admin assistant. After marrying Max Hood in 1959, Joreta dedicated herself to her family as a housewife, nurturing her children Vint, Barry, and Kim. She cherished her role as a grandmother to her beloved grandchildren, Erin Hawthorn, Emily Smith, Blake Clifton, Lauren Clifton, Rachel Clifton, and Emma Clifton, and she treasured her five great-grandchildren. Her family was the cornerstone of her life, and she found joy in their accomplishments and milestones. She deeply valued her relationships with her family and friends, staying connected through long phone calls and visits.

Joreta will be remembered for her vibrant spirit, her love of storytelling, and the warmth and laughter she brought into every gathering. A Private family graveside will be held September 19th, 2025.

A graveside service will take place at the City of Lubbock Cemetery, where her family will gather to celebrate Joreta's life. She will be laid to rest next to her family.

Joreta was preceded in death by her husband, Max Hood, brother, Gary Newton, and parents, Gilbert and Hazel Laverne Newton.
