

Jose Maria Trevino, Jr.

November 22, 1963 - September 7, 2022

Jose Maria Trevino, Jr., 58, of Lubbock, Texas passed away on September 7, 2022.

Jose was born on November 22, 1963, in Lubbock, TX to Jose Maria Trevino, Sr. and Mary Trevino. Jose had a love for music and played several instruments. He formed a Tejano band, Tesoro, that toured and performed for several years. He enjoyed good conversation and meeting new people. He especially loved spending time with family and friends playing games and watching movies. Affectionately referred to as "Uncle O", his pride and joy were his nephews and nieces.

Loved ones include mother Mary Trevino; sister Barbara Trevino; sister Candy Garza (Gilbert) of Lubbock, TX. Nephews & Nieces: Toni Garza (Roger), Patrick Torres, Desirai Rodriguez (Charlie) & Jeremy Garza. Great-Nieces and Nephew: Juliana Trevino, Rosabella Trevino & Milo Garza-Marks.

Preceded in death by Jose Maria Trevino, Sr. (Father), Romulo & Barbarita Trevino (Paternal Grandparents), Fabian & Maria Gonzales (Maternal Grandparents), Vickie Caballero (Aunt).

Candy, these pictures are such beautiful memories. I remember when you told me about your brother. I know how much you loved him, and I know how much he will be missed. I pray that God will comfort you and your family in the very difficult days, months and years ahead. Everyone grieves differently, and no one should ever tell you how to grieve or how long to grieve. Please know that I am just a phone call away if you ever want to talk. Love you!

“ Prayers and condolences to the family!
Nothing but great memories growing up in the Arnett Benson barrio, hanging out in high school, playing in Kryztal band and driving around in his 55 Chevy! Rest in peace my brother!
