

Joy Lee Brown

August 31, 1942 - June 25, 2022

Joy Lee Brown, 79, of Lewisville, Texas passed away June 25, 2022. Joy was born August 31, 1942 in Gastonia, North Carolina to Garnett and Choyce Jordan. She grew up and graduated from Frank L. Ashley High School in Gastonia. She married her beloved husband E. Doyle Brown on April 17, 1988 in Lubbock, Texas. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother.

Joy was preceded in death by her parents and husband, Doyle Brown. She leaves behind those to cherish her memories, including her sons; Keith McDonald of Palmer, Texas and Jeff McDonald and his wife Carolin of Northlake, Texas; four wonderful grandchildren, Raelee, Jordan, Gavin and Graham; and brother, Michael Jordan and his wife Kathy of Palmyra, Virginia. Joy was very proud of her twenty-one years of service at Texas Tech University in the College of Human Sciences. She loved camping and traveling with her husband Doyle, and they were members of Oakwood United Methodist. She loved her dogs, DJ and Bebe, reading, knitting, Sudoku, and spending time with her loved ones. She was the best storyteller and had quite a collection of random facts! She adored her grandchildren and surrounded herself with pictures of those she loved. Joy was a wonderfully kind, unselfish person whose name fit her perfectly.

“ Joy came into my Uncle Doyle's life and the Brown family is better for it. So many wonderful memories in their home or their camper or their van. Seems like we were always going somewhere! Joy was loving and professional. I admired her career and was inspired by that. She will be missed. Thank you for being a part of my life! Much love.

“ My mom meant so much to me and she will be so so sorely missed but what she taught me while growing up and even throughout the rest of my live up until this day is immeasurable. She had a curiosity about things and that lasted her entire life. There were many times just watching a show recently where some location or some topic would come up and the show would be stopped and we would lookup information about it. Growing up I think back to many times where that curiosity was distilled down to me although she probably really wasn't into all the bugs and worms that were brought home. That and a love of reading I know came from her and those gifts I will cherish forever. Being a single mom with not one but two young boys must have been a challenge. Looking back I don't know how she managed it but she did and everything she did was for her kids. Even as I became more independent there weren't any negative comments on decisions I made that ended up not working out just support where I failed and congratulations for the successes. And all of this was just the love she gave to me over the years. She was not only my mom but one of my very best friends in the end, her beautiful smile, love she gave, the support, memories of hikes thought the forest, riding bikes, the many camping trips. These memories will continue to sustain me now and it is a comfort to know she is now reunited with Doyle and everyone else in heaven.

“ Joy is my sister and in and of itself that is a lot but she was so much more to me. There was an age gap between us and Joy played a major and most positive role in my life, especially during my formative years. Whatever positive values I possess I owe in large if not most part to her. Her positive influence on her sons and grandchildren is also not deniable. Her life mattered and her influence will continue in the future through her wonderful family.

“ Oh, how I miss the times we had going places with her and Doyle. I am sure my dear wife Karen, Doyle, and now Joy are sitting by a campfire in heaven having a great time. Karen would say many times "Joy is a joy to be with". Pray that each of you find peace and know she no longer has any pain. May God Bless each of you!
