“ Joyce was always an amazing administrative secretary to my Dad, but what I remember most about her is that she never was too busy to visit with me when I stopped by Dad's office. 😊 She was always so positive, funny & so easy to talk with! My chats with Joyce are some of my most special memories from Texas Tech. We still have the cross stitch she made for Dad, "You'll Get Your Reward in Heaven" which shows her care & sense of humor, but it seems like heaven has a beautiful reward in Joyce.

“ Joyce would be mad if I didn't share my memory of her and I on Galveston island. She always told me I was the only person in the world that has ever pee'd on her and could've lived to tell about it! I loved Joyce like she was my own blood grandmother! She played and loved hard (she disciplined hard too)! I can't wait to see her and Bill and heaven & have a dance party again!!!
