

Joyce Johnson

July 4, 1933 - September 24, 2017

Services for Joyce Johnson, 84, of Lubbock and recently Austin, will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday in Sanders Memorial Chapel with Pastor Doyle Patterson officiating. Interment will follow at the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

She passed away Sunday, September 24, 2017.

Joyce was born July 4, 1933 in Spur, Texas, one of eight children born to Austin C. and Annie Rose. She graduated from Lubbock High School and Texas Tech University, where she met her future husband, Clarence Johnson. She taught third grade for many years at Idalou Elementary, and later taught preschool at Hope Lutheran. She was loved and respected by her students and their parents. She attended Trinity Church, where she spent many hours volunteering. She was also involved in local politics and volunteered for several campaigns.

She is survived by her son, Austin Johnson of Lubbock; daughter, Katherine Johnson of Austin; and granddaughters, Demetra Johnson of Yuma, Arizona, and Keeley Johnson of Moreno Valley, California.

“ Joyce Johnson known to me as "nana" was the best grandmother anyone could ask for. She had a huge heart! She was always joyful, happy, caring and had the best laugh! She loved to travel and learn and see new things. She loved it so much she took me to Europe when I was just 16 years old and sparked my passion for travel and adventure. I have so many wonderful memories from my childhood with her, watching movies at her house, spending the night and praying at bedtime, going to furr's after church or getting whoppers at burger king and eating them at the park! At birthdays we would make rice crispy treats and she would let us put any kind of candy we wanted in them. And i can't forget the famous jello toast! She loved cardinals and her dogs. She was a faithful servant of the lord and always picked my sister and I up for church when we were young. And if she wasn't able to make church she was sure to tune in for a service at home. She had a gift for teaching and her students loved her. I know that she is in heaven and feeling no pain or the ailments of this world. I will always remember her as my adventurous, intelligent, joyful, caring and beautiful nana. Love you Nana

“ My Nana was the sweetest person! I have so many fond memories of her. Many memories revolve around her taking us to church and then the park. We loved renting moving and buying candy. We would also go to the movies often and sneak in popcorn and candy and coke, she would pretend sneeze while opening the coke to cover it up. I will miss her dearly!! XOXO Nana!!!
