

Juan Rodrigo Rodriguez

August 20, 1979 - August 2, 2024

The world has lost a vibrant soul with the passing of Juan Rodrigo Rodriguez, who was born on August 20, 1979, in Lubbock, Texas. Juan, a beloved member of the community, will be dearly missed by all who knew him. His spirit and zest for life were infectious, touching the hearts of many.

Juan's legacy will live on through the memories cherished by his mother Dale Hernandez, Rovillee Garcia; father Juan Rodriguez Sr., grandmother Josephine Hernandez, uncle Carlos Hernandez, aunt Dorsha Miranda, uncle Robert Hernandez and aunt Sandra Hernandez; Josh Valdez, cousins, Matthew Hernandez, Taylor Aguirre Giovanni Hernandez, Eliana Hernandez, and his special angel, Andrea Rodriguez. His deep love for the Las Vegas Raiders, Harley Davidson motorcycles, and traveling to new places brought him immense joy. Juan always enjoyed attending football games, hosting BBQ cookouts, and spending quality time with friends and his beloved dogs.

A proud graduate with a High School Diploma and attended South Plains College, Juan excelled as a skilled Service Technician in the Auto Body Repair industry. His dedication and passion for his work earned him respect from colleagues and customers alike.

Juan's light touched the lives of many, and his absence will be deeply felt. May his memory continue to shine brightly in the hearts of all who knew him.

Juan was preceded in death by: Placido Hernandez, Tony Hernandez, Johnny Hernandez, Teresa Hernandez and Senona Rodriguez.

“ Thank you Johnny for being my only brother, my 1st best friend, and my partner in crime. I will miss you so much mijo but I'm happy to know that you beat me and will finally be with our momma Senona in heaven who raised us both and loved us unconditionally. I know your resting in peace knowing that I will always take care and protect your dad Juan because even though this loss hurts like crazy I'm happy that you are finally with my mom Janie, our momma Senona, and our Tia Diana watching over me, your dad Juan, your uncles Rudy, Frank, and Ben and all the rest of the family.
