“ It was always a wonderful time to visit with June before Ladies Bible Class would start; see her smiling face and have a chance to catch up on all the scoop.

We enjoyed seeing her sitting in her chair in her garage, wavering at us as we drove by; at times we would stop and have a short visit. June will be deeply missed, but memories will always be in our hearts.

May the Lord be with each family member during this time of loss.

In Christ,

“ June loved her family so dearly and was always ready to see them, and share many fun times with them. She loved writing stories from her past and sharing those with all. She will be missed by so many, but is now full of joy as she has made it "Home".
