

Karen Kay Holmes Thompson

July 28, 1952 - March 28, 2024

Karen Kay Holmes Thompson, 71, of Lubbock, Texas passed away March 28, 2024.

Karen was born July 28, 1952 in Lubbock, TX to Harold Gene Holmes and Norma Holmes. She graduated from Lubbock High School in 1970. Karen was a Human Resource Officer for the U.S. Postal Service from 1982 until 2007.

Karen married Jeffrey Kent Thompson on October 5, 1989 in Lubbock.

Loved ones include her husband, Jeffrey Kent Thompson; brother, Michael Eugene Holmes; sister, Joann Toland; niece, Ashley Holmes Cushman; nephew, Johnathan Toland; great-nieces, Allie "Baby Ducks" Cushman and Emma "Lady Bug" Cushman and numerous cousins.

Karen will be dearly missed by her adoring family, friends, and colleagues. Her memory will be cherished and her legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Karen dedicated her professional career to the U.S. Postal Service, serving as a valued member in Human Resources. Her coworkers held her in high regard for her diligent work ethic and her unwavering commitment to assisting them in maximizing their benefits. In her spare time, Karen found solace in the company of her precious dog and cat companions, demonstrating her compassionate nature towards animals. She had a passion for reading and found comfort and enjoyment in immersing herself in the pages of a good book.

Preceded in death by her parents, Harold Gene and Norma Holmes; grandparents, Fred and Edith Holmes; Richard and Nora McGuire.

Memorials are suggested to Alley Kat Rescue and Morris Safe House. A celebration of her life will be 1:00 p.m., Friday, April 5, 2024 in Sanders Memorial Chapel with Reverend Paul Carpenter officiating. Please celebrate the life of Karen by visiting www.sandersfuneralhome.com. A webcast of services will be available as well as our online guest book.
