April 7, 1964 - March 3, 2018

Kathy Elliott Standke

It is with great sadness that the family of Kathleen Joy Standke announces her sudden passing at the age of 53.

Kathy will be remembered by her loving mother, Joy Elliott, sister, Teresa Harvey (Steve), Cindy Reece, Briana Bowland (Brett), her loving pet Mande Boo, and numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and dear friends.

Kathy was preceded in death by her loving father, Roger Elliott, grandparents, Claude and Clara Elliott, and James and Marguerite Covey.

Kathy had a love for life like no one else and will be remembered for her love of telling jokes, making people laugh and helping others. Kathy was also an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan and animal lover. Kathy's greatest enjoyment was her three sisters, her nieces and nephews and making them happy.

Kathy was of the Lutheran faith and was confirmed at Redeemer Lutheran Church at the age of 14. Kathy graduated from Dunbar High School in 1982, then attended South Plains College receiving her degree as a Radiology Technician in 1984.

Memorial services will be at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 8, 2018 at Sanders Funeral Home.

God has received yet another special angel in heaven. My dear aunt Kathy. Gone way too soon. You had so much life left to give. As they say, Gods timing is perfect though. I must trust that. You are truly missed and loved by all of us. One of my most favorite aunts, may you rest in peace.
