“ LeRoy loved the holidays. It was the tiny little parade in Hale Center for 4th of July but he would always be sure to get his pickup parked downtown in the spot to watch the parade. Then, Halloween and candy. He loved his candy. The last couple of yrs living in assisted facility he would not tell anyone who asked much of anything he needed except his bags of candy, especially at Halloween. He liked to share with his roommate. I think that's why he rode the bike and walked on the treadmill for an hour and a half in the morning and the afternoon! So, he could eat his candy and not put on the weight. lol He had a great smile and laugh. I will miss that.. Janet Lynn
