“ My heart aches knowing this precious woman is gone, but rejoices knowing she is with Roy once again. I will always remember the party cousin Roy brought her to when I was 16. We had so much fun that night, especially watching her try to shave (without a blade in the razor) Roy's face blindfolded. She will be greatly missed by our family and her friends.

“ I will always remember how sweet she was. Always the same, always smiling and sweet talking. I always wished I could be like her. When my daughter, Rise, joined the Navy, she had to leave her son, Joey Ray, while she was in book camp. Joey now is a pastor of his church in Post. This was a lot because of Kay keeping him in church when he was just a little boy. Kay, I have always loved you and thought you were one of the best.

“ Whow! We're do you start talking about one of the sweetest women I ever met, I have had the pleasure to spend many hrs with Kay over the last 44 years. Kay was always the same no matter what the situation happy joyful a woman that the Lord shined thru, there was never a doubt her love for God family and friends. Loved going to kay and roys for lunch always was going to be some really good food. Kay touched a lot of people with her spirit no doubt in my mind she changed the destiny of many.

Her daughter's Kristy and mellisa along with the grandkids along with Jeff and Jake were her whole life.

Maybe I seen Kay little upset a few times but one time I seen fire in her eyes and it was directed at Roy and myself

We had got this pop up camper and had headed to el Paso all 8 of us Roy and I were setting up the pop up pulled the beds out but had not put braces under the beds yet we were putting these under the back bed and heard this banging tearing ripping screaming noise comotion like you never heard Roy and I run to the front of the little pop up and here is Kathie and Kay sprawled out over the hot el paso sand bruised and banged up. These 2 women decided to make the beds and had both crawled up in this one bed but with no supports. They broke the bed the frame tore the material and whow was Roy getting a chewing form Kay and I was getting mine from, Kathie . never got Kay back in a pop up again. We're was smart phones at then that would have been the funniest video winner.

Just loved thia women and family

“ I met Kay when she started dating my cousin Roy. I spent a couple a weeks with then during the summer months 1968 and 69 as a very young teen. And saw each other over the years and I just recently corresponded with her about my recent move to Arizona. She always had time for family and was an Angel here on earth and I know she will continue watching over her family from above. I know her and my mom (Aunt Sue) will have quite the conversation in heaven as well as enjoying being by the side of her beloved Roy.
