“ I can still hear "Kenny" as she would call Pops, and see her smiling at one of her beloved pets. She will be missed tremendously by all she knew. Rest in Peace Momare, your journey has ended, and now you can hang up your traveling shoes and kick back, prop your feet up and enjoy the next chapter that is before you. Love you and will see you soon.

“ One of my earliest and fondest memories was going to see Momare in Oklahoma. I loved waking up to the smell of her amazing oat meal cooking. I'd tiptoe down the stairs and crack the door open just to smell it cooking. She was a beautiful person inside and out. I miss her very much.
