“ We send condolences to the family of Linna Fay. Perhaps you would enjoy sharing my memories. In 1937-39, we lived across the street from the Fergusons, on 7th about 1/2 block east of Avenue Q. Linna Fay was best friend to my sister Mary Ellen Scoggin, who died at age 7 from scarlet fever. Since I was only 4, my memories are few and faint, but I remember that we kids played up and down the block, and in one another's houses. I specifically remember working small jigsaw puzzles on the floor at the Fergusons house. Our mothers visited one another, and in those days, did not use first names. They were Ms Ferguson and Ms Scoggin. The last time I saw Linna Fay, I was 16, working parttime at Sears, and sold her an artificial flower corsage, very popular at the time, and maybe some jewelry or something to match, to go with her Easter dress. That was 1950. I take comfort from realizing the best friends are reunited now.
