

Lois Marie Brashear

July 26, 1934 - August 28, 2021

Lois Marie Brashear, 87 of Lubbock, Texas was called home on August 28, 2021. Lois, the 9th of 10 children was born to Namon and Agnes Sellers on July 26, 1934 in Conway, Arkansas. She considered Kennett, Missouri her hometown and it was there she met and married the love of her life, William Alvin (Bud) Brashear. Lois and Bud relocated to Lubbock in the early 50s where they were blessed with four boys. Lois was a homemaker and a hostess at Hemphill Well's Tea Room and later the Espresso Café at Dillard's. She was a devout Christian and adored her church family. She spent her Sundays teaching Sunday school at Emmanuel Baptist Church. When the church changed to New Millennium Baptist Church she was happy to join the new congregation. Lois adored her family and her extended family, she was Granny to all who entered her home.

Lois is survived by her sons, Alvin (Dorothy), Terry (Nora), Carl (Katy) and Ron, 13 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and 9 siblings.

A celebration of her life will be at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, September 2, 2021 in the New Millennium Baptist Church 101 East Queens Street. Graveside services will follow in the Idalou Cemetery.
