“ The memories flow from us to you, the Tech football games, baseball at southwest. Christmas eve parties, Rich always late! Teaching Richard how to play golf, he still needs more coaching! But most of all we remember your beautiful smile and laughter. Love to you and the boys, Richard and Pam

“ I never saw Loren Langston that he didn't greet me with that patented smile. My son Scott and I visited him at home a few years ago when he was fighting back from what would be a series of health issues and that smile and positive demeanor inspired us both. His family will miss him dearly but the many memories he left behind will linger forever in their hearts and minds and the lessons he taught through his silent will remain to ever inspire. A great husband, a great father, a great friend...

As a young sophomore, want-to-be athlete at Lubbock High, I quickly learned to look up to the "Chief" for guidance, friendship, and a sense of security and constancy. As an adult, distance allowed us only rare visits, but those events were cherished. I thought of him often, and knew there was always a friend there, which is comforting. I will miss his special presence. Roycee, know that you are loved and our prayers go with you and your family. Akie
