“ Every time I saw my Aunt Louise, the first words out of her mouth were "Hurry over here so I can get a HUG" I'm going to miss those hugs. Even though we didn't get to see our Lubbock family very often when we did it was filled with fun, food and family. I will cherish those memories always.

“ My family and I have known Louise for about 30 years. She was always nice and welcomed us in her home. She knows each of our 4 children and always asked how they were. She always asked about each one by name and remembered current events in their lives. Her voice was always soothing and brought peace to me. She shared plants from her yard. Often she would have a cake for us. I was always returning a plate or two. We still own a little house that she sold to my son. I for one will miss her. I'm sure I speak for husband and adult children as they have wonderful memories of her sweet hospitality. I know we all will miss her.

“ My aunt Louise was the sweetest woman. She greeted me with love and discipline as she had lots of breakable collections. She always had a pot of red beans for dinner and the best sausage biscuits and gravy on the planet for breakfast. I will miss her but cherish the wonderful memories of her.

Patrick, I have been looking for your family on Facebook. I didn't know Louise passed away until today. I watched her funeral and memories online. I talked to her on the phone several times after Judy & Ronnie passed away. I wish I could track your family down. Sheila Potter Conley
