“ *Don & Lynnita sat on the same row in worship where we sat. We began a getting to know you conversation about kids, likes, etc. From that time on we were like old friends. We would get so happy to see each other at combined worship and other church functions. She was the sweetest, nicest, genuine person I know. I will miss her. Don and family you are in our prayers. *Jere and I were so deeply saddened to hear about Lynnita/. We had so much enjoyed getting to be with her and with Don at evening dinners here at Carillon and at other events here, too.. She was friendly and fun and a lovely person in all aspects. May God' loving presence be with her family through these days ahead and may your memories bless you always.

We were so shocked & saddened by Lynnita's death. She was a sweet, dear friend. We always enjoyed being with her & Don. She was a faithful Christian & enjoyed the LCU Associates where I enjoyed being with her when we lived in Lubbock. We enjoyed talking about our children & grandchildren. I got acquainted with Lynnita and Don several years ago through where I worked at the bank and then later going to church together. I always loved visiting with her and Don. She was a devoted, kind and friendly Christian lady. It seemed like she was always there for any activities relating to LCU, church or the bank. She will be missed by so many. Condolences to Don and the family. Charlene Eddleman
