

Margarita Morado

July 27, 1943 - January 16, 2024

Margarita Ortiz Morado passed away Tuesday, January 16, 2024. Born on July 27, 1943 to Maria Rivera Ortiz and Saturnino Oritz in Cameron, Texas and is now with her Lord.

Margarita was the baby of six children and adored her brothers and sisters. Regardless of being the baby, she always cared and looked after her siblings. She married the love of her life, Gilbert Morado on March 8, 1964. The two of them shared two children, Samuel and Esther, who were her world.

Having only completed the 9th Grade, Margarita become a great bookkeeper and worked for Preston Milk Stores for 10+ years until starting a business with her husband and becoming the bookkeeper, dispatcher and office manager for Gilbert's Tire Service; which successfully ran for another 20+ years. She was hard working and maintained a very balanced household all at the same time. Margarita helped raise two of her grandsons who very were special to her. She loved all her grandchildren with all her heart.

Margarita loved the Lord and sang in the church choir as a young girl and continued to sing her heart out in worship well into her older years from the pew and in the car. She was a member of the First Four Square Latin Church. She is survived by her son Samuel Morado, daughter Esther Saldivar (Mark), three grandsons; Anthony, Isaac Morado and Stephen Saldivar, one granddaughter Cori Saldivar (all from Lubbock). Preceded in death by her parents, Saturnino and Maria Ortiz, three sisters, Emilia Rico, Frances Garza and Virginia Garza, and two brothers Enis Ortiz and Marcelo Ortiz.

Visitation will be at 7:00 PM Friday January 19th, 2024 at the Sanders Memorial Chapel. Funeral service will be at 10:30 AM Saturday, January 20th, 2024 at Aldersgate Church followed by a graveside service at Peaceful Gardens.

“ My Tia loved garage sales. Almost every time I stayed the night to hang out with my cousin Esther the next day my Tia & Tio would take me with them to the garage sales. After the garage sales runs we would hit up their favorite burger stand in Lubbock. One of the many memories I have of both them. Here recently I been reminiscant of our family trips to California when I was a child. Love you Tio & Tia Kristin Sanchez
