Thank you for posting service on line. We were able to watch from Mississippi. Marilyn was loved by so many and was a precious souls that went too soon. May you be dancing in Glory now getting caught up on everyone that went before her.

So wish we could have been there. But my Dad, Marilyn's father-in-law, is unable to travel. We loved Marilyn so much. She was such a sweet soul. And our unoffical family historian. She remembered every single family member's birthday and anniversary, without fail. She fought the good fight with faith and courage. And above all, with love. And love endures forever. God keep you, Marilyn, until we meet again.
