“ To the family of Marue,

Marue was a special friend to my mother, Karola Jones. They worked together in the LISD purchasing office and became the closest of friends. Friendship that lasts over 40 years, is very special and blessed by God. Marue taught my daughter and neice handwork when they spent time with her and their Grandma. Marue was a beautiful lady, and we will never forget her. She is experiencing joy and happiness now that we cannot event imagine. She is meeting Jesus and will be there waiting for us.
