

Mary P. Burdick

December 30, 1918 - December 9, 2017

A memorial service for Mary P. Burdick will be held in Hoosick, NY, at the convenience of the family.

Mary passed away December 9, 2017, 3 weeks shy of her 99th birthday.

Mary was born December 30, 1918 in Hoosick, NY to Roscoe and Ethel Pierce. She attended the local schools in Hoosick, and was the first in the family to graduate from college. Mary graduated from Albany Teachers College, (now State University of New York) in June 1937, and worked for the state of New York for several years. Mary wed Arthur Orson Burdick on 8/29/1945.

Loved ones include sons, Rodger Burdick, and wife Gracie of Lubbock, TX; William Burdick, and wife Donna of Ramsey, NJ; 4 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents Roscoe and Ethel Pierce, her husband Arthur, and two brothers, Frank Pierce and Harold Pierce.

Mary spent her life as a loving wife, mother and grandmother. She enjoyed gardening, but confessed she did not have a "green thumb". She was an avid reader, even writing book reports on what she read into her 90's.
