

Mary Calhoun

February 19, 1941 - June 1, 2025

Mary Irene Calhoun, born on February 19, 1941, in Bisbee, Arizona, passed away peacefully on June 1, 2025, at the age of 84. A cherished homemaker, Mary made her home in Lubbock, Texas, where she created a warm and loving environment for her family. She is survived by her two beloved sons, Michael and Max Calhoun, along with her granddaughter Amber Casarez, grandsons Tyler Calhoun and Ruben Casarez, great-grandsons Talon Merry and Tyler Calhoun, and great-granddaughter Amaya Casarez.

Mary was the life of every gathering, known for her quick wit and infectious laughter. She embraced life with open arms and was always ready for a dance, often charming her friends and family with her spirited personality. A lover of music and nature, Mary found joy in the simple pleasures of life, and her spritzers were a beloved staple at family celebrations. "You're as young as you feel," she would say, and she lived by that mantra, proving that age was just a number and never acting her age.

Throughout her life, Mary created countless memorable moments that left a lasting impact on everyone around her. Whether she was sharing a laugh, lending a hand to a stranger, or simply enjoying the beauty of the outdoors, she embraced every moment with enthusiasm. If you knew Mary, you hold a special memory of her in your heart, reflecting the love and joy she brought into the lives of those she touched.

Mary's spirit will continue to shine bright in the hearts of her family and friends. In honoring her vibrant life, a celebration of her legacy will be held in the coming days, allowing all who knew her to come together to share stories and cherish the memories of an extraordinary woman who truly lived life to the fullest.

Mary was preceded in death by: Odis Calhoun, Hazel Calhoun, Oliver Schlensker, Opal Kirby
