“ For several years, the Hartgraves were our next-door-neighbors on 53rd Street. We children were always welcomed over to their house, and Randy was a good bud to us kids. Mary Frances would always ask us if we were hungry (and kids always are), and if we said yes (we never said no), she would make us all bologna sandwiches. I can always remember watching Elmer mowing his front lawn in his work clothes with his manual mower...the power was provided by Elmer.

Mary Frances was a dear, sweet soul, and I know that she's in heaven making bologna sandwiches for anyone who needs one. Thanks so much for mine.
