“ As her youngest sister, I was always envious of her lack of grey hair once we got "older" as I am totally white headed!! As a family, we were always very close and even after my family moved from Lubbock, all of my sisters and one of our brothers would make the trek to Lake Whitney for a "Sibling Shindig" and Ellen would always get into the pool and "swim" though she did not know how to swim. We spent many hours laughing at the "sibling" antics from our childhood. (We were amazed we "survived) We all had a love of "antique shopping" and the sibling rivalry during our "Chicken Foot" matches was hilarious. These are memories I will cherish when I think of Ellen. I love you kids! Frances Bonner
