

Mary Ellen Jones

December 25, 1922 - February 13, 2023

Mary Ellen Jones of Lubbock, Texas, passed away February 13, 2023, at the age of 100 after a wonderful life. She was proud to be a Texas Tech Red Raider with a degree from the Home Economics School. While in college, she met the love of her life, R. E. Jones.

She was an accomplished seamstress, created beautiful needlework, and was a talented china painter. She was a member of the FUMC quilters group for years.

Mary Ellen was a loving grandmother. She often played the card games with her grandchildren, but she never let them win the game. She won trophies in her bowling league. For several years she worked at Hemphill-Wells and had a devoted group who enjoyed purchasing china from her department. After retirement, she traveled across the world visiting France, Italy, England, and Morocco. She also went on many trips in the USA with her son and his family.

In May, 2015, she moved to a Brookdale facility. She loved sitting in the lobby by the fireplace and chatting with friends. The family is deeply grateful for the kind, loving care provided by the Brookdale staff and Traditions Hospice.

Her son is Curt Jones (Susan) of Richardson, Texas. Her grandchildren are Julie Woods (Herschel) of Dallas, Texas, Ben Jones of Addison, Texas, and Andy Jones (Sachan) of Houston, Texas.

Mary Ellen sang in the choir of First Methodist Church of Lubbock and was the choir librarian for many years. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to the Music Ministry of First Methodist Church of Lubbock, Texas.

A service will be held in the Bowman Chapel of First Methodist Church of Lubbock at 2 PM on March 4, 2023 with Shera Atkinson officiating.
