He is survived by his mother, Jan Henry; father, Doug Robinson; daughter, Leah Rowan Robinson; and aunts Judi Henry and Kay Sprague.

Every life is a story. Matt's story, like all of our lives, had ups and downs, but for the past eight years, in his last chapter, he found his calling in serving others. He helped numerous people in their recovery journeys. Matt loved others, and that was his talent. He related to other people's pain, and he soothed the tears, regrets, and hardships by caring for others. Donations can be made to ARC, 608 17th St., Lubbock, TX 79401.
