

Mavis Miller Latham

January 26, 1935 - June 3, 2020

Mavis Louise Fluke Miller Latham, 85, passed peacefully on June 3, 2020. She was born on January 26, 1935 to Harold "Buster" Fluke and Texie Olive (Tubbs) Fluke. Born and raised in Lubbock, TX she graduated from Lubbock High where she and her sweetheart Sterling Miller were named Mr. and Ms. Lubbock High. They married in 1954 and started traveling the world as Sterling served in the Air Force. She gave birth to four beautiful children. After the passing of Sterling she took over Treasure Island Golf Course in 1980 for 15 years and served on many civic and council boards. She then met and married Harry Latham, and they moved to Buffalo, Wyoming. After the passing of Harry, she returned to Texas. She is survived by her four children, daughter, Becky Thompson of Lubbock, TX, daughter, Deby (Sam) Garcia of Lubbock, TX, son, Sterling K. (Lucy) Miller of Hideaway, TX; and daughter, Teresa (Gary) Oppermann of Cedar Creek, TX,; 9 grandchildren; and 8 great-grandchildren. She will be remembered as a strong woman who inspired many with grace and poise. A celebration of life will be held at the Chapel in Sanders Funeral Home on June 13th at 10:30AM. In place of flowers donate to the American Diabetes Association or to the American Heart Association.
