“ Melrose came into my life when she married my uncle Marshall. Memories of their garden wedding, her beauty, wonderful smile, gentle spirit and voice, infectious laugh and loving spirit will remain with me always. She had the unique ability in conversation to make me believe she valued my thoughts and that no one else in the room mattered. Her family was her life. Wednesday afternoon was grocery shopping time at the downtown Piggly Wiggly. Melrose made sure she, Kathy & Kim were neatly dressed when shopping in Marshall's place of business. She took very seriously her role of mother and grandmother. She was a wonderful homemaker. You will be deeply missed but not forgotten. Now as the words of a song so aptly express "...go rest high on that mountain, your work on earth is done." My life was truly blessed when our lives entwined. You were a role model to me. Bonnie
