

Michael Ray North

March 12, 1949 - April 28, 2023

Michael "Mike" Ray North, 74, of Lubbock, passed away peacefully at home on April 28, 2023.

Michael was born to Jack and Betty North on March 12, 1949, in Corpus Christi, Texas. He grew up in Corpus Christi and attended Ray High School before attending Texas A&M University.

Michael married the love of his life, Delilah, in 1978. They shared forty-five years of love, laughter, and life. Together they raised two sons, Eric and Justin. Later in life, they were blessed with another son, Marcus. Anyone who knew Michael knew that family meant everything to him.

Michael never met a stranger. He made countless friends during his decades-long career in the automobile industry in Lubbock. He had a way of making everyone feel special.

Michael is survived by his wife, Delilah; his sons Eric, Justin, and Marcus; his sister Sharon; his brother Jack; and his precious fur babies.

His daughter Alexandra and his parents Jack and Betty preceded him in death.

There will be no funeral or memorial service, in keeping with Michael's wishes.

The family asks for privacy at this time.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the American Heart Association.
