Myra Lavurn Williams

Myra Lavurn Williams, 79, of Lubbock, passed from this life on March 26, 2015. A memorial service will be held Saturday, March 28, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at Sanders Funeral Home Chapel in Lubbock with Reverend Kevin Van officiating.

Lavurn was born in Sweetwater, Texas to Y. C. and Annie Lou Holmes on April 11, 1935. She married Clifford Williams on July 11, 1952. Lavurn was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Our heartache is great but we are grateful to have been so blessed, secure in the knowledge that her family was the most important part of her life and her love was unconditional. She was preceded in death by her husband on October 23, 2014; her parents; brothers, Carl, Don, Glen and Alvin; sisters, Lou Ella, Thelma, and Shirley. She is survived by two brothers and their wives, Clarence and Joy Holmes of Amarillo, Texas and Jimmy and Kathy Holmes of Hereford, Texas; sister-in-law, Judy Holmes of Lubbock; her children, Kathy Cummings and Cliff Monroe, Debbie and Danny Mayfield, Brett Williams and Todd Etheredge all of Lubbock; grandchildren, Lindsay and Jose Torrez, and Jeremy Cummings of Lubbock, and Jennifer Cummings of Arlington, Texas. She also leaves behind a great-grandchild, Oliver Torrez of Lubbock; as well as many loving extended family members.

“ Aunt Lavurn, you were such a beautiful, sweet woman, inside and out. I remember our many meals and even vacations together as extended family. My sincere prayers for her children and grandchildren as they grieve their loss but celebrate Lavurn and Clifford's reunion in Heaven. May God bring you comfort and peace that passes understanding in the days ahead, until we all meet again. Blessings to you all, Mickey Williams Trimble

Lavurn , you will be remembered as one of the 'fun' moms of our class. I always had so much fun at your house. Especially when ya'll lived just down the road east of us. I loved visiting you in Littlefield and Seminole. Debbie, we have happy memories of your parents to cherish.

Love Always, Donna Avery Wheeler
