Larry what a precious brother you were to Nancy. I had no idea she had passed or I would have been there. I have so many wonderful childhood memories with all of you. We were such a close family for so many years and I miss that time of my life. Nancy was beautiful inside and out, I always felt no one appreciated her beauty. Love and peace to you cousin and all your brothers.

“ I met Aunt Nancy for the first time Thanksgiving of 1999 after marrying Josh, her nephew. She was so full of life and laughter. She took me in as one of the family and taught me a few crochet stitches. As the years passed I remember her sitting in the recliner next to granny and both of them crocheting or knitting and telling stories. They were such fun to be around. When our first child, Dara, was around 2 she held her in her lap and and gave her her 1st taste of cottage cheese. Dara loves cottage cheese to this very day!! We will miss you Aunt Nancy! We love you very much!

“ Aunt Nancy was so fun to talk to, as I always knew she would call me “honey” several times throughout the conversation, but I also knew how deeply she believed in every word she said. She was a deep thinker and loved to have fun. She welcomed anyone who crossed her path with love and was never afraid to share how good God had been to her, no matter the circumstance. I will miss you, Aunt Nancy. Tell Granny, Grandad, and my dad hi for me! I look forward to the day we can all be together again.

“ When my brother, Steven, and I were 2 and 6 she played with us. She made Barbie clothes for my dolls and took us swimming at her apartment pool. I just remember having fun with her and laughing a lot. Nancy was my dad’s 1st cousin. I know daddy greeted her in heaven.

“ Aunt Nancy was always such a fun person. I remember so many things it’s hard to pick. I remember riding in her car jamming out to Mr. Custer and Witch Doctor. I’d go over to her apartment sometimes when she lived in Arlington and would help her decorate for Christmas while listening to Michael Jackson. She introduced me to so many fiction books, including my favorite author ever. She was a loving lady with a loud voice and no fear of telling her thoughts. I love you gobbies Aunt Nancy!
