*I was able to watch your dad's service online. He was obviously a very good man. It's easy to see David, where you get the Godly characteristics I admire in you. You were blessed to have him for 94 years. What a legacy he leaves behind in you and your brothers. Blessings on you, Terri, and your family.

“Ned was my father’s younger brother. I was a toddler at his wedding to Frances. The brothers made a point of getting together whenever they could set work aside. David is one year and a day younger than me, so I grew up close to the three boys. I especially loved summer holidays when I could travel and stay with the family. I particularly remember one month with the family in Sprague, WA when they had a motel. Ned’s wit and positive outlook on life always impressed me and when I think of him, I feel his verve for life. Uncle Ned has always been much loved, and now in memory. May he be united with our loved ones who have gone before.

I remember meeting Ned several times. He came to help David and Terry move. He was insistent on buying my dinner since I was helping too. I love the stories David told of his dad cooking for his sons and calling the food by unusual names, such as “dinosaur eggs” to get them interested in eating. His legacy of hard work and good moral character lives on in his sons and grandsons. It was a blessing to hear of his trust in our Lord. He will be missed, but remembered fondly.

We can attest to the fact that Ned and Francis raised their boys to be great men. Gary is our son in love and we could not be prouder to call him ours.

Ned was a wonderful man and always good to our daughter and granddaughter. He will be missed. Bailey is fortunate to have had him in her life as long as she did.

There will never be a shortage of "Ned" stories. What a legacy he left behind.
