

Nina Jacquelyn Mayfield

July 9, 1938 - July 12, 2021

A celebration of the life of Nina Mayfield, 83, of Lubbock, Texas will be 2:00 PM Friday, July 16, 2021, in Resthaven Memorial Park with Kyle Schlabach officiating. Viewing will be come and go from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM Thursday, July 15, 2021, at Sanders Funeral Home.

Nina passed away July 12, 2021. She fought for as long as her body allowed but when the Lord called her home, she was ready.

Nina was born July 9, 1938, in Avery, TX to V. O. Carnes and Annis Carnes. She is one of five kids. She graduated from Lubbock High School in 1956 where she met the love of her life , Bobby. They married in 1956 and started a family which has grown from their love. From her children to all her grandchildren, she was the one we turned to for advice and guidance. She will be greatly missed until we see her again.

Loved ones include spouse Bobby Mayfield; son Gary Mayfield; daughter Julie Swissler; daughter Katelyn Mayfield; sister Jo Adams; brother Bob Carnes; sister Nannette Oswalt; 5 grandsons and 6 great grandchildren.

Preceded in death by V.O. Carnes (Father), Annis Carnes (Mother), Harold Carnes (Brother)

Memorials are suggested to St. Judes and Project 9:12.

“ I remember the VO Carnes family, when coming to Caprock church of Christ May 1974. 47 years went fast as Bobby and Nina must have been 37? Bobby had his printing company, Caprock's elders were brothers Brooker(sp), Leslie Duncan and couple others, brother Grover Stevens had been Caprock ~ 5yrs. very respectfully, and know and look forward to "that day" the Judgment as the hymn we sang so many times as bro Bill Slabaugh
