

Odell Woody Cook

January 21, 1914 - January 29, 2014

Odell Cook passed away on January 29, 2014, of natural causes. Having been born on August 21, 1914, she lived nearly one hundred years. She had been a resident of Carillon House for the past 25 years.

Odell was born in Andrews, Texas. After High School, she attended and graduated from the West Texas Hospital School of Nursing and became a Registered Nurse. She practiced her profession at the hospital for several years and then spent extensive time over the years as a Volunteer Nurse with the American Red Cross in their disaster recovery efforts.

She was married to Glenn W. Woody and together they had three sons. She also worked in the family tire business for nearly six decades. She was an active volunteer and leader in many areas. She was a member of St. John's United Methodist Church for over 60 years where she served in a number of leadership positions including the Board of Trustees and as an adult Sunday School teacher.

She was always active as an adult volunteer for the various activities of her sons.

After the passing of Glenn Woody in 1981, she married W. Wayne Cook in 1988. They were married until his passing in 2003.

She is survived by her three sons, Glenn D. Woody of La Quinta, Calif., Jack R. Woody of Albuquerque, NM and David E. Woody of Lubbock, as well as four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Services will be Saturday, February 8, at 10:00 am at Sanders Funeral Home, 1420 Main Street, Lubbock, TX 79401, followed by internment at Resthaven Cemetery. There will be a viewing on Friday, February 7, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm at Sanders Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to the American Cancer Society or the American Red Cross.
