“Fay was a very delightful person. She and my mother Dorothy Dove both lived at Wilshire Memory Care till the good Lord decided he wanted them up there with him. Fay and my mother use to talk and argue all the time. I continued to see Fay when I would go to Wilshire to see the people there. God Bless Fay and her family. She is now your special angel,

“ Sheila, I remember when your mother was at Cottage Village with Vic's parents and my mother. She lived right across the hall from Vic's parents. For a while, she had a little dog with her. She was crazy about that little dog. I'm not sure she always recognized us when we visited our folks, but we always spoke with her and reminded her that we knew you and Ronnie.
God Bless You and your family at this time,
Vic, Paula and Bren Hines
