“ I will always remember Uncle Dennis stopping for my Big Mac attacks while we were on road trips all over Texas, New Mexico, and Wyoming with 7 kids in the back of the pickup camper. Then there was the day he came home early and caught my cousin and me on the roof where we were just about to jump down to the trampoline....again.

He and I always shared our love of the Navy and had a special bond. He was so proud of his service and the fact that I followed. He loved to call me a squid :) and was so proud to share our inside stories of Navy life. I always tried to bring him Navy items any time I could and thought of him every single time I went to the VA.

I loved my Uncle Dennis and will always remember our bond. He and Aunt Bev kept me every summer as a kid and I will never forget the adventures we had.

“ Dennis Taylor a man Among men, one of the most courageous men I ever met he married my sister Beverly took on her family and his family. Dennis was a good brother-in-law to me. He loved our family his Go in life was to be a good husband and good dad. He proudly served his nation in the Navy. He was one of the best machinist and mechanic I have ever known. I learned a lot from him and will never forget his legacy thank you Dino. I love you, bro.
