Pat was born in Hereford, TX on August 27th, 1940 and received her promotion to heaven on July 7, 2024, at the age of 83.

Pat's devotion to her husband, Richard Wilson is inspiring as they celebrated 66 years of marriage together.

Her spiritual connection with Jesus, shaped her very life. As a child she attended services at the Salvation Army. She was full of the Holy Spirit and knew the Word of God. Her son, Mitch who is a pastor always said, "She practiced what he preached!"

She loved her church and served as a very faithful member of The Message Church. She loved being a part of the Legacy Group at The Message. She loved her Message Women Tuesday Morning Bible Study Group with the same love. She never wanted to miss any of the events, Bible Studies or Worship at Church.

In celebration of Pat's life, we will meet at the church she loved and helped build, The Message Church at 5502 Auburn in Lubbock, Texas on Wednesday, July 10th.

Visitation will be at 1:00 PM and the Celebration of Life Service will be at 2:00 PM at The Message Church.

Immediately following the service at the church we will go to the City of Lubbock Cemetery and honor her and her husband together as they will be buried at the same time.

Jesus set her free to join her husband and it's all by HIS grace.

It would make her smile if you gave a gift in her memory to the Build the Vision fund at The Message Church! 5502 Auburn, Lubbock, Texas 79416
