“ Not a day goes by that I dont miss you and wish you were her to guide me or give me strength when i am weak.It,s hard cause i live down the street from your old house where i grew up, i pass by there dailey and i always remember all the good times we shared there. I love you granny and i will never forget you i hope to make you proud of me one day!! we will meet again someday and i look forward to that day your grandson is lost without you..... Love always and forever
