“ It hurts deeply when a family member is taken too young. I always felt a bond to Paul from when I went to college and really got to know Paul. No matter how long it had been we could pick back up as if it had been yesterday. Visiting and talking with Paul was always fun, interesting, enlightening. I will miss Paul's sense of humor. After the disease had caused Paul to have double vision I was over to visit. When I asked if he was seeing two of me he said " Yes, and they are both ugly". I will miss Paul.
