“ I haven't seen Aunt Pearl in a very long time. I will always remember how welcome she made everyone feel, she had a real spirit of hospitality. As a youngster I always liked to look at her because I always thought she was so pretty. I want to send Debbie, Bobbie, Daniel and all the rest of your family my condolences and prayers. I pray The Lord will comfort you through losing such a great lady in your life. Your cousin, Connie Shelton DeBorde (your Uncle Lundy's daughter.)

“ Aunt Pearl was always there for anyone!! About 9 yrs ago me in my mid forties call her and tell her I have a job offer there thru my company could I stay with u a little while and without a hesitation she said " you sure can come on", so I did. I get there and lose my vehicle so she lets me drive her pickup I think she had forever and even take it to my place after getting my own place which left her without a vehicle (but made sure she had what she needed) she said " I needed to get back and forth to work. That was my Aunt Pearl a person that always thought of others before herself! Luv U forever Aunt Pearl!!
