“ *Dear Uncle Randy,
I am honored to have been your nephew. I always looked up to your strong will and dedication to everything in your life. You were a man of few words, and a quiet observer. However when you had the spotlight you spoke truth, and every word was carefully thought out. I will never forget all the many games we played with family especially Boulderdash, and Joker.
Thank you for the many memories growing up. I will always cherish every Holiday, family get together, and moment in time we had spent together.*

With love, and respect,

Your Nephew Jared

“ Uncle Randy was such a wonderful man. He was an incredible father and husband, and it was always so clear to me how much he loved his family. I'm so grateful to be part of that family. His gentle nature always brought peace and an easy-going spirit to every family event, and his witty humor brought laughter wherever he went. He was very loved and he will be very much missed.

What a beautiful memorial and tribute to Randy. I didn't know that Randy had sold Avon but may be a family thing his dad Lee sold Stanley Home Products at one time when he was a Lubbock Fireman. Treasure you did an amazing job with raising the kids this was shown by Randy.

I remember Sue and Randy first dating I thought he met you at The Saddle Bronc but he was truly in LOVE with you from the start. Laci I never met you but I know your dad is looking down on you and Anthony and truly loved you. Tressie, Penny, Jimmy and Danny I know he loved you too. So now I'm going to have that beer, Randy this one is for you. Go Rest High on The Mountain. Till we meet again RIP.

“ Reflecting back on the last 40+ years of knowing Randy as a fellow employee at Brandon & Clark, he was one of the most gentle persons I have known.

Many times over the years, Randy had to meet many health struggles head on.

No matter what his lot, he faced those bravely without complaining.

So, if I had to describe Randy in one word, I would say he was Mr. Steady.

We know today, he is in heaven with no more health struggles.

Blessings to Sue and the Metsgar family.
