Ray had worked several years for the SW Bell telephone, and was drafted into the Army and served in Korea. He had several professions throughout the years, but was a realtor for 28 years, working at John Walton's Century 21 office. He dearly loved all the people he had worked with throughout the years.

Ray is survived by his wife, Sandra; daughters, Lee Ann and son-in-law Nate Caro, and Susan Jeffreys; son, Jerry and daughter-in-law Karla Haddock; five grandchildren, Taylor, Jason, Jordon, Jarrett, and Nicolas. Ray will be greatly missed by all his extended family and a host of friends.

Preceding him in death were parents, Raymond and Lorene Tyler; sister, Anna Nell Hensley; and daughter, Beverly Tyler Wilson.
