

Regina Kaye Shipman

May 11, 1944 - February 20, 2024

Regina Shipman, 79, of Lubbock, Texas passed away February 20, 2024.

Regina was born May 11, 1944 in Amarillo, Texas to James Boyd and Geneva Boyd. Regina attended Tascosa High School and later Amarillo College where she met her future husband. She married Don Shipman on August 26, 1966 in Amarillo. They married at First Christian Church where they were active members. Raising their three children in Amarillo, they loved spending time with friends and family.

Later, Regina and Don moved to Lubbock to spend time with their grandchildren. Regina loved baking and was always working in her garden. She had quite the green thumb. They became active members of Fellowship Church where they loved and supported their Church family in any way they could.

She is survived by her daughter, Christi Salyer and husband, Shane; sons, Kevin and Jonathan Shipman; grandchildren, Maddie, Jake and Carley Salyer; Hagan and Dyson Shipman.

Preceded in death by husband, Don Shipman; father, James Boyd and mother, Geneva Boyd.

The family will hold a private celebration of life service to honor their mother and grandmother.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be made to Hospice of Lubbock or Fellowship Church of Lubbock.

Regina will be remembered for the love and kindness that she showed everyone she met.

“ Regina was a dear friend who truly loved and trusted Jesus, and who was a faithful member of Fellowship Church Lubbock for as long as she could physically get to church. I'll always miss her coming over to our house to visit with my mom, Retta (who arrived in Heaven 18 days before Regina, and who I'm sure was elated to be able to visit with her again). I was honored to serve a member like Regina as elder at FCL for nearly ten years, and I will always remember and miss her love for the church and for my own family, her encouraging words and her sweet personality. I'll keep praying for you, her children, as she asked me so often to do.

“ I met Regina and Don at a small group gathering at the Valentines home about 13 years ago. We found out that first night that we shared a birthday and over the years there were other things that she and I thought were wonderful. Their wedding anniversary was the date of my first sons birth and we also have the same middle name. Over the years I grew to love this little lady more and more. I was blessed in the last years of her life to pick her up for church and sit by her each Sunday and then drive her home. I loved to hear her talk on the way home every single Sunday without fail about how much she and her husband loved our pastor, Eric Barbee, and what a wonderful message he had just given. Every week. And I always agreed but it was just so precious to hear her talk of their love for him. This was my privilege and blessing for as long as she was able to go. I will miss her so very much but I praise our Lord who has called her to His side.
