“ Richard Winder Markee was one of the best men I've ever known. He was Young Adult Chair for his stake, as well as for the tri-stake region. He led thoughtfully, caringly, and spiritually. Everyone who knew him loved and respected him. I haven't kept in touch, so I don't know the struggles he endured before he passed. I just knew him well as a person and know he would have done the best he could. He was a fun and faithful person always. Prayers are with his loved ones left behind for now - you will see the best of him again.

With all my love,
Gay (Seymour) Jamieson
